REGULATIONS (REVISED) FOR THE PH.D. DEGREE IN THE FACULTIES OF ARTS, LANGUAGES, EDUCATION, SCIENCE & MATHEMATICS AND DESIGN & FINE ARTS

1.1. A candidate for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in the Arts, Languages, Education, Science & Mathematics and Design & Fine Arts Faculties should have obtained from this University, the Master's degree ordinarily in the first or second class. The Academic Council may however, approve any other degree as equivalent to the Master's degree.

A candidate who has obtained the Master's degree in third class may also be allowed with special permission of the Joint Research Board on the recommendation of the Research Degree Committee which shall give reasons for this recommendation.

1.2. A person who has obtained Master's degree in the first or second class from another recognised University may be allowed to supplicate for the Ph.D. degree provided he enrolls himself as a regular student and engages himself in research at the Panjab University under the directions of the Head of the department concerned for not less than three years.

2. A candidate supplicating in a Science subject shall reside and do research at the University, or at a Centre approved by the University, for the entire period of research i.e., two years or three years as the case may be.

A candidate supplicating in another subject shall reside and do research at the University or at a Centre, approved by the University for Ph.D. research, for at least 30 weeks. If necessary, this period may be staggered over three years, provided that 12 weeks must be so spent every year. The Dean of University Instruction, however, may condone the shortage in the required period of 30 weeks up to a maximum of 6 weeks, but this permission shall be granted only in exceptional cases, if recommended by the Supervisor and the Head of the Department.

NOTE : Residence at the University shall include residence at an affiliated institution where facilities for research are available and is approved by the Joint Research Board.

3.1. A person who wishes to be accepted as a candidate for Ph.D. research, shall, before starting research work, apply through the Head of the University Department concerned, on the prescribed form of enrolment, with a fee of Rs. 50 (not refundable).

3.2. On being enrolled, every candidate shall pay a fee of Rs. 25 per mensem to the University. A person who is awarded a research scholarship by the University or by the University Grants Commission or by any other such body may, however, be exempted from this fee.

3.3. Application on the prescribed form for enrolment shall be considered by the University thrice in a year as under :—

- (a) From July 15 to July 31,
- (b) From November 15 to November 30, and
- (c) From March 15 to March 31.

3.4. Within six months from the date of enrolment, the candidate shall furnish through the Head of the University Department concerned,

- (a) a tentative title of the thesis; and
- (b) a tentative design of research project.

The candidate may seek approval of the title of the thesis later but he shall submit the thesis not earlier than one year from the date of approval of the title. The Joint Research Board may, however, relax this limit wherever it is considered necessary by the Head of the Department.

4.1. Before forwarding the application required in Regulation 3.4. Head of the Department will satisfy himself, after proper scrutiny and test, including viva-voce, of adequate general knowledge of the candidate in his special field of study. Head of the Department shall also satisfy himself that the subject offered is one which can be pursued with profit and that the candidate possesses the requisite qualifications, equipment and capacity for research.

4.2. While forwarding the application, Head of the Department shall also recommend a suitable supervisor, to guide the applicant in his research work.

5. All applications for approval of the tentative title, etc. (Reg. 3.4), after scrutiny by the Registrar's Office, shall be forwarded for consideration of Research Degree Committee concerned which, in each subject, shall consist of :

- (i) Dean of Faculty;
- (ii) *Head of the University Department in the subject concerned and the Professor or Professors, if any,
- (iii) Convener of Board of Studies in the subject concerned,
- (iv) Two Readers (by rotation) in the subject concerned,
- (v) A Professor of an allied subject appointed by the Vice-Chancellor.

The Research Degree Committee shall be appointed in December every alternate year and shall hold office from January 1.

6. The Research Degree Committee shall consider each application and decide whether, in their opinion,

- (a) the subject proposed for research; and
- (b) the supervisor recommended.

are suitable and, if so, they may recommend approval of the same. If, however, the committee considers that the subject and/or the supervisor are not suitable, they may either reject the application or may suggest suitable changes for reasons to be recorded.

The committee may recommend joint supervisors in any particular case if the Head of the Department concerned considers it necessary.

*In addition to the Head of the Panjab University Sanskrit Deptt., Director, V.I.S.&I.S., Hoshiarpur, shall also be a member for Sanskrit Committee.

7. The title of thesis and the supervisor recommended by Research Degree Committee shall be considered by the Joint Research Board, which shall consist of :

- (i) Deans of the Faculties of Arts, Languages, Science & Mathematics, Education and Design & Fine Arts; and
- (ii) *Heads of all University Teaching Departments in the Arts, Languages, Science & Mathematics, Education and Design & Fine Arts Faculties.

The Joint Research Board shall have power to co-opt any other expert for a particular meeting. The decision of this Board shall be final.

8.1. Every candidate shall pursue his research work at the University or at an approved centre, for three years from the date of receipt of the enrolment application. Thereafter, he shall submit the thesis by one of the following dates whichever falls immediately next to the expiry of three years :—

First term	July 31
Second term	October 31
Third term	January 31
Fourth term	April 30

Provided that the Joint Research Board may, on the recommendation of the Research Degree Committee, for reasons to be recorded, grant exemption for a period not exceeding one year and allow a candidate to submit his thesis after two years of enrolment and research or any period fixed by the Board but it shall not be less than two years from the date of enrolment, but such exemption shall not be granted to candidates admitted under Regulation 1.2.

8.2. A candidate who is allowed to go to another country for a part of his research work can submit his thesis only after having completed the research work at the Panjab University in Chandigarh for at least one year.

9. A candidate may apply for permission to modify the title of his thesis. If the modification is not of minor nature, the candidate shall not submit his thesis less than six months after the date on which the change is approved by the Joint Research Board.

10. The Head of the University Department in association with the Supervisor concerned shall test every candidate, on the expiry of one year from the date of enrolment, in order to determine whether the candidate should be allowed to continue his research work. If a candidate is found unfit, his enrolment shall be cancelled.

11.1. Every candidate shall report in writing, at the end of every six months, to the supervisor the work done by him during the six months. The supervisor will take such action on this report as he considers suitable depending on the nature of the report and other circumstances of the case.

11.2. The Head of the Department concerned will ensure that every supervisor submits report on the candidate's research work twice a year, viz—

- (a) Between October 16 and 31,
- (b) Between April 16 and 30.

Reports of supervisors in all cases shall be submitted to the Joint Research Board for information and any action, if necessary.

11.3. In the event of a difference arising between a candidate and the Supervisor, the matter shall, in the first instance, be referred to the Head of the Department. If, however, the Head of the Department unable to settle it, the matter shall be referred to the Dean of University Instruction. If the Supervisor happens to be the Head of a Department, the matter shall be referred to the Dean of University Instruction directly.

When the matter is referred to the Dean of University Instruction, he will take a decision himself, after obtaining, if necessary, the advice of an expert. The decision of the Dean of University Instruction shall be final.

11.4. If a supervisor gives unsatisfactory report on the work of a candidate, the position will be considered by the Joint Research Board in order to decide whether the candidate should be allowed to continue his research for the Ph.D. degree.

12. After the expiry of one year's research work at the University, a candidate may be allowed by the Head of the Department to continue his research work at some other approved centre if—

(a) facilities for further work do not exist at this University;

OR

(b) if the Head of the Department is satisfied that it would be in the interest of the candidate to do further research work at such a centre.

Provided that the supervisor may, on scrutiny of the six-monthly reports received from the candidate, send for the candidate to assess the progress made by him in his research work.

13.1. A candidate who is unable to complete his research work and thesis within the time allowed by Regulation 8 may apply, through his supervisor and Head of the Department concerned, for grant of extension.

Extension may be granted by the Joint Research Board up to a maximum of two years, i.e., every candidate must submit his thesis on the expiry of a total period of five years from the date of enrolment application on one of the following dates whichever falls immediately next to the expiry of the total period allowed :—

First term	July 31
Second term	October 31
Third term	January 15

The Dean of University Instruction may, however, condone delay, up to three months, in the receipt of a thesis after the prescribed period of five years.

Provided that—

- (1) extension shall not be granted for more than a year at a time;
- (2) every application for the grant of extension shall be accompanied by a fee of Rs. 25.

13.2. If a candidate fails to submit his thesis within the period allowed under Regulation 13.1, his enrolment shall be cancelled, but he may be allowed to register himself again with some other subject, or in exceptional circumstances such as prolonged illness extending over several years or exigencies of military service, on the same subject.

14. If the supervisor of a candidate who has been doing research work for the Ph.D. degree of another University is employed on the staff of the Panjab University, the candidate doing research work under his supervision may be allowed to enrol himself as a candidate for the Ph.D. degree of this University under the same supervisor, subject to fulfilment of these regulations. Such a candidate shall not submit his thesis until after one year of enrolment in this University.

15. On completion of the research work and in accordance with the period allowed in Regulations 8 and 13 the candidate shall submit four printed or typewritten copies of his thesis and shall comply with the following conditions :—

- (i) The thesis shall accompany (a) a fee of Rs. 250; (b) a certificate from his supervisor (as may be prescribed by the Syndicate) indicating the period for which the candidate has done research work and that the thesis is worthy of consideration for the award of the Ph.D. degree and (c) in the case of a candidate for Science Faculty, a certificate to the effect that he has qualified in Certificate or Technical Translation examination in French, or German or Russian of this University or any other examination recognised as equivalent thereto.
- (ii) The thesis must be a piece of original research work characterised either by the discovery of new facts or for a fresh interpretation of the known facts or theories; in either case it shall give evidence of the candidate's capacity for original research, critical examination and judgment;
- (iii) The thesis shall be satisfactory in its literary presentation;
- (iv) The thesis shall indicate how it embodies the results of the candidate's own research or observations and the respects in which the candidate's investigations appear to him to have advanced study of the subject;

Provided that :

- (a) A candidate may incorporate in his thesis contents of any work which he may have published on the subject, but he shall not submit, as his thesis, any work for which a degree has been conferred by this or any other University.
- (b) A thesis on a subject approved by another University, shall not be accepted by this University in whole or in part.
- (c) Edited texts of Calendars of unpublished manuscripts, critical editions from original manuscripts of old texts, records or documents, when accompanied by adequate introductions and critical apparatus, shall be given the same recognition as original dissertation on Arts or Science subjects and for the award of the Doctorate degree it shall be regarded as equally worth consideration.
- (d) The candidate shall declare in writing duly countersigned by his supervisor or Head of the Department, that the thesis is not substantially the same as the one he may have already submitted to another University.
- (e) The thesis must consist of the Candidate's own work which must be his personal achievement. The candidate may, however, submit in support of his thesis, any printed contribution for the advancement of his subject which may be published independently or conjointly. In the latter case, the candidate shall indicate specifically his personal contribution to the conjoint work duly attested by the supervisor.

*For purpose of research in the subject of only Anthropology. Certificate in Tibetan is also approved.

16. Every candidate shall give an undertaking that he will not publish his thesis without the previous permission of the Syndicate. If this permission is granted, the candidate shall supply to the Registrar three copies of the published thesis : one copy to be placed in the University Department concerned and two copies in the University Library. The candidate will also furnish the University with copies of reviews of his publication which, along with the book, shall be brought to the notice of the Syndicate.

17.1. The thesis shall be referred to two examiners appointed by the Syndicate on the recommendation of the Joint Research Board and the Vice-Chancellor. The examiners may recommend--- that the thesis be accepted for the award of the Ph.D. degree

OR

that the thesis be rejected

OR

that the thesis be allowed to be resubmitted with improvement and for this purpose may make such suggestions as they may deem fit.

17.2. If there is a difference of opinion between the two examiners in regard to the acceptance of the thesis, the Syndicate may refer the thesis to another examiner.

17.3. The examiners for a thesis in the Arts, Languages and Design & Fine Arts Faculties shall, indicate in their report whether :

the thesis is fit for publication by the candidate in its original or modified form. In the latter case, they may make definite suggestions for improvement.

OR

the thesis is of such an outstanding merit that the University should undertake its publication at its own cost.

17.4. Except in the case of a thesis which is rejected, viva-voce shall be held in accordance with the rules prescribed in this behalf by the Syndicate, before a final decision is given on the thesis. The examiners may send, if they so desire, along with their reports, questions for use by the Board conducting the oral examination. Such a Board shall consist of three examiners appointed by the Syndicate of which the Head of the University Department concerned and the supervisor of the thesis shall be members.

17.5. A thesis shall be re-submitted, if so recommended by the examiners, only once, and it shall be examined by the examiners who assessed the original thesis unless both or any of them are unable or unwilling to do so.

17.6. A candidate who is required to re-submit his thesis must do so immediately on expiry of six months from the date of intimation of the decision of the University to him, unless extension is specially given by the Joint Research Board. The revised thesis shall reach the University accompanied by half the amount of fee prescribed in Regulation 15, on one of the following dates whichever falls immediate next to the expiry of six months allowed herein :

First Term	July 31
Second Term	October 31
Third Term	January 15

*Permission is not necessary, if only parts of the thesis are to be published in scholarly journals.

17.7. A candidate whose thesis is rejected shall not be registered again for the Ph.D. degree with the same subject.

18. The reports of both the examiners on the thesis as well as of the other examiners for the viva-voce shall be considered by the Syndicate. The Syndicate may decide—

(i) whether the degree of doctor of Philosophy be awarded;

OR

(ii) whether the candidate be required to revise the thesis and resubmit it for re-examination;

OR

(iii) whether the thesis be rejected.

19. The Registrar shall notify the result in accordance with the decision of the Syndicate.

20. A person already registered for the Ph.D. degree, before these regulations come into force, shall, if he so desires, continue to be governed by the old regulations until a decision on his thesis is taken.
